Members also made an evaluation of the breakfast briefing with Navid Hanif as well as of the advocacy efforts undertaken to provide feedback and influence the Zero draft. The Working Groups convened to propose speakers and logistics for the three panel events that the Committee organized during the 2019 FfD Forum.

- May 1, 2019 - Alberto Padova (AP) Chief, Strategic Engagement and Policy Integration Branch, FSDO, DESA and Greg Barrett, Economic Affairs Officer, FSDO provided briefing on FfD matters. Members had an extensive discussion about the increased room fees and reiterated the need to provide this information at the application stage for next year’s Forum; The Nominating Committee comprising of Martha Gallahue (United Religions Initiative), Elsa Muttathu (International Presentation Association) and Janet Kinney (Partnership for Global Justice) provided an update on the preparations for the elections to take place at the annual meeting in June.

Strategic Plan

The Committee is on track to meet the Objective and SMART Goals outlined in its 2018-2019 strategic plan, included below.

➢ Objectives:

1. Strengthen advocacy work on the Committee’s 2018-2019 priority areas
2. Influence the implementation of the Addis Ababa Action Agenda with focused priority statements.
3. Educate and empower members to participate effectively in FfD substantive sessions and hearings
4. Prepare for the 2018 & 2019 ECOSOC Forum on Financing for Development Follow-up
5. Organize parallel events on FfD-related topics during the main UN Commissions, the FfD Forum, the HLPF and the IMF/World Bank annual and spring meetings

➢ SMART Goals:

1. Hold a breakfast session focusing on FfD
2. Complete at least 5 mission visits
3. Ensure we have a well-organized website that can be easily navigated
4. Complete the Beginners advocacy guide
5. Develop advocacy statements on all our priority areas
6. Hold a side event at CSW 63 in sponsorship with a member states
7. Submit a position paper for 2019 IATF report

➢ As outlined in the strategic plan, the functional working group format was shifted to three thematic working groups to provide members the opportunity to engage on one of the three priority topics of the Committee, develop position papers and organize side events. This reconfiguration was done at the request of several members who had indicated interest in participating in the Committee’s work through thematic issues rather than functional working groups and also having the opportunity for every member to organize side events rather than just a group of individuals who were part of the side events working group to organize them (as done in 2017-2018).

Collaborations with NGO Committees and other groups

➢ A joint advocacy group on Social Protection (JAGGGSP) was created at the initiative of the NGO Committee on Social Development. Other Committees in this Group are NGO Committee on Financing for Development, NGO Committee on the Status of Women and the NGO Committee on Migration. The objective of the group is to strengthen advocacy on Social Protection in light of the thematic focus on Social Protection during Commission for Social Development (CSocd), Commission on the Status of Women and SDG 10 review at HLPF 2019. Anita Thomas represents the Committee on this group.

➢ The Committee contributed to and helped finalize the JAGGSP’s oral statement during CSocd and organization of a panel event during the CSW.

➢ Anita Thomas attended the strategy session of the CSOFfD group held in Rome, Italy from November. The Committee is a founding member of the CSOFfD Group https://csoforffd.org/about/.

Engagements in UN processes

➢ The Committee submitted a position paper to the Inter-Agency Task Force on Financing Sustainable Development focusing on its three priority areas, outlined in its 2018-2019 strategic plan. Members from the three working groups contributed to the chapters pertaining to their respective area of work. The JAGGSP also contributed to the chapter on Social Protection.

➢ On September 30, 2018, Anita Thomas represented the Committee on the five members NGO delegation to the High Level Meeting on Financing the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development held at UNHQ. The CSOFfD Group coordinated the nomination process for the five NGO delegates (maximum allowed) to this meeting. The other delegates were Sandra Vermuyten, (Public Services International), Roza Lizarde (Women’s Working Group on FfD), Elizabeth Lockwood (CBM), Dereje Alemayehu (Global Alliance for Tax Justice). Dereje presented the statement.

➢ FSDO invited Anita Thomas to make an intervention at the December 6, 2018 “Informal Meeting on preparations for the 2019 ECOSOC Forum on Financing for Development and the SDG Investment Fair” held at the at the Permanent Mission of Mexico.

➢ The Committee was invited to make interventions during the January 14, 2019, Informal multi-stakeholder consultation: Making finance work for a sustainable world in 2019 and beyond held at UNHQ. Three members of the Committee, Daniel LeBlanc (Vivat International), Martha Gallahue (United Religions Initiative), Faith Yusko (Partnership for Global Justice) made interventions. Faith represented the Committee as one of its youth members.

➢ As the Zero Draft of the 2019 ECOSOC FfD Forum follow-up outcome document gives limited attention to social protection, following the Committees event organized on March 27, a small group of members from the Committee met and developed a paragraph for sharing with member states during the negotiations on the Zero Draft taking place at UNHQ till April 3. The Chair wrote to the Ambassadors of the Missions of Canada, Uruguay, Ecuador, and Japan requesting consideration of the Committee’s proposed language on Social Protection.

Special appreciation to:

➢ United Methodists Women and to Velda Dhanoolal for making a room available for the Committee meetings at the Church Center.

➢ World Vision and the Bahai International Community for their generosity with meeting space when rooms were not available at the Church Center.

➢ UNFSDO for its ongoing collaborations with the Committee and to Greg Barrett for his monthly briefings

➢ Teresa Kotturan for making her personal projector available for many of the Committee meetings.

➢ Barry Herman for his insight and guidance during the crafting of the Committee’s position paper in response to IATF draft outline.

➢ Gemma Adaba and Barry Herman for guidance and assistance in advancing the proposed language on social protection in the zero draft of the 2019 FfD Forum outcome document.
